Thomas Edison was born in Milan, Ohio, and grew up in Port Huron, Michigan. Edison considered himself to be of Dutch ancestry. My mother was the making of me. She was so true, so sure of me; and I felt I had something to live for, someone I must not disappoint."

Much of his education came from reading R.G. Parker’s School of Natural Philosophy and The Cooper Union. Edison developed hearing problems at an early age. The cause of his deafness has been attributed to a bout of scarlet fever during childhood and recurring untreated middle ear infections. In his later years he modified the story to say the injury occurred when the conductor, in helping him onto a moving train, lifted him by the ears. Edison's family was forced to move to Port Huron, Michigan, when the railroad bypassed Milan in 1854,[7] but his life there was bittersweet.
